9 FAM PART IV Appendix R, 201 FORM I-688A, TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION CARD

(TL:VISA-123; 9-8-95)

- a. Legalization applicants and SAW aliens were initially issued

Form I-688A, a temporary employment authorization card. SAWs only could also use this card as an authorized travel document. Legalization applicants could not use Form I-688A as a travel document.

- b. Form I-688A is a laminated card similar to Form I-551, Alien

Registration Receipt Card. To differentiate between legalization beneficiaries and agricultural workers, the bottom center portion of the Form I-688A carries a notation of either "245A" (Legalization) or "210" (SAW).

9 FAM PART IV Appendix R, 202 FORM I-688, TEMPORARY RESIDENT CARD

(TL:VISA-123; 9-8-95)

Form I-688 (Temporary Resident Card) was issued to both SAWs and legalization applicants after that status was approved and Form I-688A was surrendered. It also is annotated "210" or "245A" on the bottom center portion of the card. Legalization Offices placed a one-year extension sticker that expired 1/1/91 on SAW Forms I-688. The stickers have a black background and the legend color shifts from green to orange, depending on the angle at which it is held, like a hologram.
